Indian status

Find out more about Indian status and status card applications, the Indian Register, band membership, estates, band moneys and treaty annuity payments.

! Status card validity during COVID-19 pandemic

- Indigenous Services Canada (ISC) has extended the validity date of status cards until further notice.
- Service providers should accept status cards or Temporary Confirmation of Registration Documents (TCRDs), with identification, even if the renewal or expiry date has passed.
- Indian status does not expire. Your registration number confirms your status and can be used to access some services and programs.

You can call this number 819-664-2962 in order to receive a temporary document to validate your card, which is good up to one year stating that your status card, can be used even if expired.

Is your medical card up-to-date? Is it expired? If it's expired, any of our Social Service Workers can be reached at 819-723-2260 and assist you in calling into the RAMQ to request a renewal form. If your card is no longer valid RAMQ can issue a temporary number or if you rather call the RAMQ yourself and request a renewal form they can be reached at: 1-800-561-9749. .

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

We would like to thank all parents/guardians, and members of the community who are helping out in any way, for your patience and understanding during the recent implementation of our Phase 2 programming at Kiwetin Kikinamading. We know it is not ideal for the students who are trying to work from home, some of whom may not yet be old enough to understand the importance of trying to stay connected with their teacher and classmates, and of getting their schoolwork done. We are hoping that this will not have to be the case much longer and that we can soon return to something a bit more 'normal'. In the meantime, have a safe and happy Halloween! Watch out for the ghosts and goblins!
